LADY JACKET SOCCER BLOG

September 19, 2016

Road trips to West Virginia always seem to result in some interesting memories. I'm not entirely sure what it is about that little state, but the amount of laughter produced there never ceases to amaze me. Now, don't get me wrong, this is in no way my way of insinuating West Virginia to be a lesser state than all the others, but rather me acknowledging the fact that similarly to the Bermuda Triangle, odd things seem to occur there. In honor of West Virginia, I have decided to dedicate this blog to the act of reminiscing on its relationship with the Cedarville Women's Soccer Team throughout the years.

2011

On October 29, 2011 (yes, I did my research), in a land far, far away (well not actually that far) the Lady Jackets made their way to Elkins, WV to face Davis & Elkins in their last regular season game. In a recent interview with Assistant Coach Bri Barnes, we are taken back in time to relive that encounter with the grand state of West Virginia.

September 18, 2016. 6:30 PM (recorded for accuracy)

Interviewer (clearly me, but I thought I would clarify): So, Brienne – do you mind if I call you Brienne?

Brienne (interrupting): Actually, I prefer Bri, thank you.

Interviewer: Ah, my mistake. So, Bri – tell us what you remember from that fateful weekend many years ago.

Bri (not Brienne): Well, this was our first time traveling to Elkins, WV and I was pretty eager to see what the school was like.

Interviewer: This was your first year coaching, am I correct?

Bri: That is correct, ma'am.

Side note: always grateful for when Bri refers to me as ma'am.

Interviewer: Was this an overnight trip?

Bri: Oh my, was it ever. To make it even better we stayed at a pretty sketchy Super 8 that was cabin-themed...

Interviewer: Did you enjoy the rustic feel?

Bri: I'm not sure if "enjoy" is the word I would use...

Interviewer: Did you at least get a win out of it?

Bri: (begins sobbing)

Interviewer: (awkwardly waiting)

Bri: It snowed; we didn't even get to play.

Interviewer: Man, what a bummer. Want to go get coffee?

Bri: (between sniffles) Yeah Liv, you're the best.

September 18, 2016 7:00 PM (we spoke pretty slowly)

Weather delays appear to be a trend as we take a look back at 2014...

2014

On September 6, 2014 the CUWS team set out to play West Virginia Wesleyan on their own turf. (Could have been grass, but that's besides the point) Having played the whole first half (ahead 3-1, mind you), we came into the second half with a feeling that it was going to storm. Naturally, it not only stormed, but it stormed hard. After delaying the game several times, it was concluded that we would have to cancel. Now, some of you may be thinking: "Did you get enough minutes in to count the game, Olivia?" Sadly, I would have to say no.

With that, I move onto 2015...

2015

Don't be discouraged, West Virginia circa 2015 provided the CUWS team with some pretty exciting memories. Entering the G-MAC Tournament seeded 4th, our entire team knew that we were going to have to fight relentlessly in order to pull out a win, let alone a championship.

(Note: 1st round: at Cedarville, 2nd & Final Rounds: at Davis & Elkins)
First Round: In the first round of the G-MAC Championship, we faced

Trebecca Nazarene. Having tied them 1-1 in both regular season games, this game could truly go either way. However, with goals by Jacoby Ziegler and Grace Miorelli, the CUWS team marched into the second round.

Second Round: Having lost to Davis & Elkins twice in the regular season, this second round game was bound to be a tough one. After battling for 90 minutes, the score remained 0-0, entering us into sudden death overtime. Scoring in the 98th minute, Alyssa Maillefer put the ball in the back of the net to send us to the CHAMPIONSHIP. Welcome to West Virginia, folks.

Final Round: I can honestly say that the G-MAC Championship game was without a doubt one of the most nerve wracking days of my life. Ursuline College, the team we would be playing, was known for being tough in the playoffs, meaning that we were going to have to bring our "A game." Unfortunately for Ursuline, we did just that. With less than 30 seconds remaining in the first half, Carly Gregory put away a header off a corner from Kaleigh Rowlands (now Gruenberg), to give us the overall victory. West Virginia definitely treated us well this time around.

I will now bring you up to speed with this past road trip...

2016

For those of you who have been on road trips with teams before, you are quite aware that some of the main highlights involve food. That being said, Friday night we decided to go to a popular BBQ restaurant near our hotel in Elkins, WV. While most of us found the food to be fantastic, Haili, our poor videographer, had a SPIDER crawl out from under her ribs. As if finding a hair in your food isn't bad enough, she had to find a spider? It gives me goose bumps just thinking about it. This is not a joke ladies and gentlemen; this is what happens to CUWS in West Virginia.

In sum, road trips to West Virginia have always been a season highlight for the CUWS team. Between the ups and the downs, we have managed to create some pretty incredible stories in the process. Thank you for traveling down memory lane with me as we took a look at road trips past. I'll see you all this Thursday and Saturday as we take on Malone and Ursuline on the home field!

"We Back the Jackets!"

TONIGHT'S GAME

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the Ursuline College Arrows in a key Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) game tonight at Yellow Jacket Field. The game is a fundraiser for "Lace Up for Pediatric Cancer".

Cedarville, picked to repeat as G-MAC Champions, are 2-4 (2-2 G-MAC) on the year after posting a 1-0 league win over visiting Malone on Thursday night.

The Arrows, picked to finish second in the G-MAC action, are 5-1-1 (3-1-1 G-MAC) including a 2-1 setback at Ohio Valley on Thursday afternoon.

CU Head Coach Jonathan Meade, a 16-year veteran of coaching women's collegiate soccer, is in his first year leading the program.

Sophomore forward Alyssa Maillefer is tied for the team lead in scoring with two goals and an assist for five points. Maillefer tallied the game-winning goal in the Thursday win over Malone.

Freshman forward Hannah Atkinson also has a pair of goals and an assist for five points.

Sophomore Creslyn Van Dyck and rookie Bex Velloney are the others to record an assist this season.

Senior goalkeeper Hanna Harris has a 0.83 goals against average to go with 12 saves this fall. The 1-0 shut out of Malone was the 25th of her career which is #1 in school history.

The Arrows are under the leadership of Head Coach Jason Kubbins who is in his eleventh season (100-79-9) at Ursuline.

Alyssa Maillefer

The top scorer for the Arrows is rookie midfielder Jill Bohling with six goals 12 points. Classmate Allie Moening has contributed a goal and two assists for a second-best four points.

Senior keeper Helen Jazzar, a 2015 G-MAC First Team selection, has a .68 goals against average with 22 saves on the year. Jazzar has allowed just five goals in the Arrows first seven contests.

The all-time series between the schools is tied at 6-6-3 with a 21-13 Cedarville edge in goals scored. The teams met three times last season - both regular season contests ended in 1-1 double-overtime ties. The Lady Jackets posted a 1-0 verdict over Ursuline in the 2015 G-MAC championship game on Nov. 7 in Elkins, West Virginia.
